Solution of Franco-British Differences is Proposed by Premier

Neutral Emissary to Carry on Negotiations With Quai d'Orsay

BY JOHN STEELE
(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
LONDON, Jan. 25.—Prime Minister Ramsay Macdonald has lost no time in tackling the thorniest problems in British foreign affairs, that of relations between France and Great Britain.

It is learned from a high authority that he has authorized Dr.
Beneš, Czechoslovakian Minister,
who left London yesterday, to approach Premier Poincaré with a suggestion for immediate action
regarding the British and French
on the question of reparations and a settlement of Europe. Mr. Macdonald suggests the following principle to govern an agreement:

(1) Admission of Germany to the League of Nations.
(2) The question of the security of France to be governed by the Council of the League, supported by special British guarantees.

Dr. Beneš had several long conferences with Mr. Macdonald and Undersecretary of Foreign Affairs, Poincaré, and is fully familiar with their views on the future
settlement of Europe. It is said that Mr. Macdonald, while sympathizing deeply with Germany,
feels not disposed to be too favorable to a German government

BOYS HELD
IN BIG AUTO
THEFT CASE

Gang is Assorted to Have Stolen 200 Cars; Three in Custody of Police

Three boys, the oldest of them 14 years of age, were arrested by two motorcycle officers last night
while they were in their stolen automobile, the police said. The lads admitted stealing the machine,
and the police announced that they were members of the theft-gang
in most cases—of more than 200
automobiles in the past six months.

The lads are members of the Manchester gang, whose headquarters the police say, ranged along Manchester street.
They gave the names of Richard Stratton, 14 years of age; Seventy-sixth and Hoover streets; Arthur Anderson, 12, 2244 West Second street, and Francis Murray, 12, 1245 West Manchester street.

They were caught at One Hundred and Tenth and Normandie street
by Motorcycle Officers Casselbury
and Powers. One of the cars in their possession was the property
of W. O. Homer, 1041 Hallman avenue, Long Beach. The ownership of the other has not yet been determined.

Police said the boys declared
that for many months they have been stealing cars from garages
and in front of residences; that they have been driving them
around generally for a night or two, stripping the most valuable accessories and then abandoning or wrecking them. They did not know just how many machines they had taken, according to the police report, but thought there were at least 200. They are held for investigation.

The arrested head of the gang,
James Layman, 14, has been in Juvenile Hall for several days on various charges.

RAIL STRIKE
IN ENGLAND
UNCHANGED

Those Returning to Work
Replaced by Additional Walkout

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)
LONDON, Jan. 25.—There was not the slightest sign tonight of any cessation of the strike of members of the Associated Society
of Locomotive Engineers and Firemen.

Although there have been no
additions to the ranks of the strikers, the resumption of work by a few of the men has been balanced by fresh walkouts by others,
so that while the railway managers gradually are overuling better regulated station train services, they have been unable appreciably to increase traveling and freight-hauling facilities.

The government appears to consider that the time has not yet
arrived when it can intervene usefully.

Neither side of the dispute as far has sought government aid, and any hint that can be done at the present stage, either by the Labor
Ministry or the Council of Trades Union Congress, which had been occupying itself with attempts at mediation, is limited to watching
events and preparing the ground
for action whenever a chance for useful intervention arises.

MIRRORED TOMB FOR LENIN

Late Premier's Coffin to Be Visible at All Times in Temporary Mausoleum at Moscow

(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MOSCOW, Jan. 25.—Work was begun, with the aid of dynamite to break the frozen ground, for a temporary mausoleum in Red square, in which the body of Nicolai Lenin will be placed after the funeral com-monies Sunday. The mausoleum will be lighted by electricity, and by means of a mirrored ceiling, the casket will be visible at all times.

Again today there was continuous march of people through the House of Unions to view the body of the late soviet Premier. Up to tonight the number of those who passed through the chamber was placed at almost 50,000. Peasants and workers continue to arrive in the capital from distant points to swell the long lines awaiting entrance to the House of Unions.

Two divergent viewpoints have appeared concerning the ultimate disposition of the body of Lenin.
The workmen in several factories
have sent a petition to the government asking that the body
never be placed beneath the ground
and suggesting some arrangement
whereby it always would be visible. Health Commissioner Semashko is advocating temporary preservation having in view cremation later
when a special crematorium is constructed in Moscow, as an hygienic example to the people. Creation is treated by the Russians as people generally as heretical, as is shown by the fact that not a cremation has taken place in Moscow.

The Living Church has named a delegation of priests to attend the funeral. Most Rev. Dr. Tikhon announced today that Lenin, unlike Tolstoy, never was expelled from the church, and that, therefore,
it was permissible to conduct
services for him.

CALLED CHRISTIAN
"I consider him a good, real Christian soul," he said.

Out of respect to the widow and family of Lenin, Dr. Tikhon declared it best not to participate in the funeral procession, inasmuch as the Premier never expressed such a view.

At the hour of the funeral every train throughout Russia will be halted for five minutes. This sale of wine and beer ceased everywhere in Moscow today until after Sunday's ceremonies are conducted.

Federal Troops Repulse Combined Land and Sea
Attack on Salina Cruz, Inflicting Heavy Losses

(BY JACK STARR-HUNT
(BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
MEXICO CITY, Jan. 25.—A combined land and sea attack by revolutionary forces on Salina Cruz, which continued for thirty hours, has been repulsed by Federal troops, the War Office announced today.
Heavy losses were sustained by the rebels, the announcement said, thirty sailors and 150 infantrymen being killed. Many others were wounded.

The town was subjected to a heavy bombardment during the attack from the rebel gunboat Pro-greso. The fire was sustained even after the rebels had been driven off by the arrival of Federal reinforcements from Santa Lucra-cia and Juchitán. The prompt arrival of these reinforcements, it was stated at the War Office, prevented the town from falling into the hands of the revolutionary troops.

Solid Support for President is Asked in Appeal by Committee

Johnson Men Bewildered by Evident Unanimity of Party Leaders

BY KYLE D. PALMER
"Times" Staff Correspondent
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 25.—An appeal for Republican harmony
and solidarity in behalf of the candidacy of President Coolidge in this State was issued here today
by the National Coolidge Campaign Committee of California, following a two-day conference at which all phases of the Presidential primary campaign were discussed and a plan of procedure
tentatively agreed upon.

The committee's statement,
which is signed by Marshall Hale,
chairman, Mark L. Regan, Frank P. Merriam, Ralph L. Arnold and Percy W. Long, announced that the Coolidge campaign in California will be conducted "along the lines of the sound, constructive
and progressive policies laid down
by the President himself. The women of California are particularly urged to join the Coolidge
movement as an expression of approval of the President's efforts to have the United States take a leading part in abolishing war."

Coolidge headquarters are to be maintained in Los Angeles and San Francisco, it is announced, but all matters relating to campaign politics and procedure are to be determined by the committee of five,
which was appointed last week
by William M. Butler, national campaign director.

Following its action in making Mr. Hale committee chairman, the Coolidge committee today elected Mr. Regan vice-chairman with authority
to serve in the absence of Mr.
Hale. The entire State committee will meet in Los Angeles Saturday, February 2, to consider
problems relating to the campaign
in the southern portion of the State.

BLOW TO HIRAN
The expeditions and harmonious disposal of all matters that came before the initial meeting of the State committee and the marked unanimity of opinion as to the general campaign program to be followed occasioned much auto-nomic and not a little interest
in the local ranks of the group
supporting the candidacy of Senator Hiram Johnson, as predictions
have been made for a landslide
victory for the Coolidge ticket.

Failure of disapproval to develop, however, and the obvious
correlation expressed by the entire committee are accorded
Mr. Hale and his associates as indicating not only the co-operative spirit of the Coolidge forces, but
the general reconciliation of all party differences in California preliminary to registering a tremendous endorsement of Mr. Coolidge and his policies.

The statement of the committee
follows:
"The National Coolidge Campaign Committee will work as a unit in conducting the State campaign to elect President Coolidge
to the Republic National Convention from California pledged to President Calvin Coolidge. The committee will be organized at headquarters both in San Francisco and Los Angeles.

APPEAL TO WOMEN
"It is our earnest wish and hope that the Republican men and women of California co-operate in the fullest degree through their community clubs, their county and Congressional organizations, toward making the Coolidge campaign a signal and magnificent Republican victory."

In following the leadership of President Calvin Coolidge we are supporting a man of most state-
manlike grasp of the main problems confronting our country, as exhibited in his recent Message to Congress and a statement which has fully justified the confidence of the people in his ability to carry on the wise and humane policies
inaugurated by his predecessor
President Warren G. Harding,
whose untimely death occurred in our own State.

"We propose to conduct a constructive campaign along the lines
of the sound constructive progressive policies laid down by President Calvin Coolidge himself."
This committee is a unit in the Republican Party.

COOLIDGE PLANS TO ACT
ON OIL LEASE SCANDAL

President Orders New Inquiry as Evidence of Sinclair Loan to Fall Is Given Senators

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Simultaneously with the disclosure today in the Senate oil inquiry of another unpaid loan to former Interior Secretary Fall, the White House made known that President Coolidge was preparing to take action to protect the public interest and to punish those guilty of wrongdoing.

Before the same committee
which E. L. Doherty, California
oil magnate, told yesterday, he had loaned Mr. Fall $100,000 on his personal note while Fall was Secretary of the Interior, J. W.
Zevilly, personal counsel to Harry
F. Sinclair, testified today that
Mr. Sinclair had lent Mr. Fall $25,000 in Liberty bonds on a personal note three months after he retired from the Cabinet as secretary of the Federal Reserve.

As the testimony now stands,
the Doherty loan was made more than a year before the Doherty interests obtained the lease on the Elk Hills (Cal.) naval reserve,
while the Sinclair loan was made
more than a year after the Sinclair interests received the lease
of the Teapot Dome (Wyo.) reserve.

FACTS BEFORE CABINET
Developments in the Senate inquiry were discussed today by the Cabinet. Afterward, the President was represented officially as regarding some of the testimony as pointing to criminal action. The executive is reluctant to believe that any one has been guilty of any criminal intent, unless he sees
that the evidence already adduced
requires explanation and investigation.

In the President's view, two questions already are indicated.
One, and the more important, is
to bring to justice anyone who has dealt with the matter in any way that is in violation of the criminal laws; the other is to see whether the government has suffered injuries by reason of the oil reserves being loaned. If the loan does not seem proper, action looking
to their annulment will be taken.

INVESTIGATION FIRST
With respect to possible criminal phases of the matter, it was made clear that the President was disposed to jump to conclusions
that investigations must be made by the proper authorities to see where any criminal action has been committed. It was pointed out that criminal action could not be started
until such substantial evidence which could be presented to a grand jury at a trial would be required.

Having received evidence of two loans, Mr. Fall, the Senate committee will turn its attention to a further effort to clear up testimony regarding canceled checks
of the Hyva Corporation—a Sinclair company—loaned to Mr. Fall alleged to have been drawn in favor
of Thomas Johnson, foreman of Mr. Fall's New Mexico ranch.

Archibald Roosevelt and G. D.
Walbridge, Sinclair's secretary, will be recalled tomorrow in this phase of the inquiry.

But the committee will be diverted only temporarily from the $100,000 and $25,000 loans. Mr.
Fall will be asked next Monday to appear before the committee and discuss the other of his financial transactions.

FAIL KEEPS SILENCE
While Mr. Zevilly was telling of the $25,000 loan in June, 1923,
the former Secretary was recu-
sant in the Senate hearing here regarding the oil reserves. He declined to make any statement, and declared he had made none regarding the Doherty testimony.

Mr. Zevilly testified that the Sinclair loan to Mr. Fall was made just before the former Secretary
went to Russia to inquire into concessions in the Lower Sakhalin Peninsula which Mr. Sinclair had negotiated with the Czarist government. The money was to be used,
he said, in purchasing further advances.

LIFT 50-CENT SHOW TAX

Exemption May Include 75-cent Theaters; House Committee Votes Industrial Levy Cut

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 25.—Tax reductions amounting to $100,000, annually and affecting more than twenty industries were agreed upon today by the House Ways and Means Committee in its first major decision on the revenue rates.

The rate changes repealing some of the miscellaneous or nuisance
taxes instituted during the war
were effected by nonpartisan votes
in committee and included some suggestions of both the Mellon and Democratic plans.

THEATER TAX REPEALED
So taxes on theater admissions of 50 cents or under and on beverages were repealed and the levies
on jewelry and produce exchange sales were cut in half. Previous agreements to repeal the taxes on telegrams, telephone messages,
leased wires and candy were confirmed.

With committee consideration of the income rates still brought nearer, President Coolidge appealed today for nonpartisan support of the Mellon bill. He let it be known that he considered the prospect for
a substantial agreement on its provisions as brighter and that he believed credit for the bill, if enacted, should go to whoever votes for it, regardless of political affiliations.

The Democrats, however, continued their attitude of indifference
to the Republican proposal for a compromise agreement in committee on the income rates.
Republican leaders sought to

LONGWORTH STANDS PAT
Representative Longworth, Republican floor leader, held his ground for and the Senate committee today despite the Democratic attitude.

Secretary Mellon renewed his correspondence with Senate Committee, Republican, Michigan, in defense of his recommendations for reductions in the tax rates to a maximum of 25 per cent.

In its revision of the indirect tax rate schedules, the committee left
a balance of about $7,000,000
which may yet be cut off in these levies.

Motions before the committee to repeal the taxes on automobile
trucks and spare parts and reduce
those on automobile passenger cars
were defeated.

Chairman Green of the committee pointed out, however, that with a margin still remaining for possible further cuts in the schedules.

Where else can you find a tract like this?
Forty-two new factories in the center of CITY TERRACE bringing a payroll of $7,000,000 a year, enough money to support 20,000 people. A central business district on a wide Plaza where seven through streets focus traffic. A thousand acres melting away into beautiful new home sites—on good streets, with water, gas, electricity and wonderful views.

Car lines—Yellow and Red—both through the very center of the property—and two wide boulevards besides.

ALL less than three miles from Los Angeles Center—9 minutes by automobile—17 minutes by trolley—and going fast at OPENING PRICES.

Just imagine these prices TODAY. You make a profit the moment you buy. Look them over and act quickly.

RESIDENCE LOTS—all well drained, big, wide lots—level or hillside as you prefer—selling now for $695, some as low as $395, and on such easy terms that you can secure a choice homestead for only $140 down and easy payments of $28 a month.

It's the first step in owning your home—and a beautiful home, too, on a car line only 20 to 30 minutes from downtown Los Angeles. Nearly 3000 other people have already bought and sales are speeding up every day.

INCOME LOTS, TOO—big and level, just the place for a Duplex or a Bungalow Court with a tremendous demand for houses to rent already existing—hundreds of new skilled workers coming with their families every month, finding steady jobs in City Industrial Tract and looking for places to live nearby. These lots now $850 to $1950 and on EASY TERMS.

TO TO GAIN

give you a list of them if you will write me, sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

One can lose as well as gain on the milk cure. It all depends upon the amount of milk that is taken. Those who want to gain have to take the milk in sufficient quantities to be in excess of the needs, and those who want to lose have to take it in quantities less than their needs.

Many thin people have no appetite because they have not been getting sufficient vitamins, which are necessary for the normal functioning of the body. The vitamins of fresh vegetables and fruit are especially important to stimulate the appetite.

Many, in an effort to gain, will try to increase the fats only in their meals, knowing that fats are higher in fattening value than any other foods. This often defeats the purpose, for the body cannot digest the thing to do is to eat the green vegetables and fruit if you have not been having enough of them, and increase other foods in proportion—whole wheat bread and butter, nuts, milk, egg yolks, cream and potatoes particularly.

There is another bromide that has helped the thin to stay thin—'I don't want you eat but what you assimilate that counts.' That is true, but it is also true that the chief reason the majority of thin people are thin is because they are not assimilating food is because they are not getting enough food to be assimilated.

It may be possible that you belong to the very few thin who eat too much. That is easily determined by counting your calories. I told you yesterday that the normal adult should have from five to twenty calories per pound of normal weight. If you find by this reckoning that you have been taking too many calories, then cut them down, and see how it works. But you must remember that you need more calories, very many more, than normal, if you want to gain.

If you do not or cannot take the milk cure, and milk in liberal amounts to your diet, I know of many who have put on the wanted pounds by that single, simple plan. If you cannot get fresh milk you can get the powdered milk. These milk powders are splendid. Get the whole milk powder and make it up as directed, or you can use malted milk or natural or artificially made buttermilk.

I have seen wonderful gains by the use of raw eggs also. (One egg is equivalent to 80 C.). They can be taken either in fruit juice or milk, in the form of egg nog or beaten up with cream. If you do not care for them in these forms, take them raw. Begin with one after every meal, taken in the juice of an orange. Then after you have become accustomed to them, make it two after each meal. Swallow them down whole; that is the best way.

Two eggs, 160 C., plus the juice of an orange, say 50 C., taken three times a day, would add more than 600 C. a day to your menu. Five hundred C. is equivalent to one-eighth of a pound of fat in six weeks, so eat less meat and protein while you are doing this.

You have been advised never to eat unless you had an appetite and could enjoy your food, and to avoid eating as a mere duty. You must forget that advice. But whether you enjoy it or not, and do eat as a matter of duty, for it is your duty to get yourself in the best physical condition. Since the food is in your system, whether you like it or not, a large part of it will be assimilated. Perhaps not so well, nor so readily, for we do know that the enjoyment of food adds to the efficiency of the digestive juices.

However, you will find as your stomach is stretched to care for more food, that you will begin to care for it, too. Eating more, or less, is largely a matter of habit. Those overweight are in the habit of eating too much, and you underweighters are in the habit of eating too little. So—eat.

The other things beside eating that are important in your gaining regime, I'll take up for you next week.

MAN CONVICTED OF TEN-YEAR-OLD MURDER
PITTSBURGH (Pa.), Jan. 25.—A verdict of second-degree murder against William E. Sage, who shot and killed J. A. McNair in the Pennsylvania Railroad Station here ten years ago, was returned today by a jury of twelve men.

Sage and McNair were employed by the railroad company and testimony during the trial tended to show that Sage killed McNair because he said he was being discriminated against in the matter of promotion. A moment after the killing Sage disappeared and after a nation-wide search covering several years the chase was abandoned.

Sage's arrest in Bakersfield, where he had worked for several years, came shortly after he had quarreled with his wife.

JAPANESE MAKE ELABORATE PLANS FOR IMPERIAL MARRIAGE CEREMONY

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS)

TOKIO, Jan. 25.—The police were completing elaborate preparations to guard the prince regent and his bride at the wedding ceremony tomorrow.

Six thousand policemen were detailed to guard the route over which the couple will approach the Imperial Palace.

The Imperial marriage has been made the occasion of amnesty affecting 40,000 prisoners, whose sentences will be lessened. These prisoners include the assassin of Premier Hara, and Capt. Anasaku, who was convicted of killing Sakaguchi, a Socialist leader, and Oseki's family, in the excitement after the great earthquake.

The ceremony has been set for 10 a.m.

SOLDIER SENTENCED FOR LYNCHING MINER
HAMILTON (Ala.), Jan. 25.—Robert J. Lancaster today was found guilty of second-degree murder and sentenced to serve eighteen years in the State penitentiary. With seven other members of Company M, Alabama National Guard, he was paroled with having lynched William Baird, a miner, during the Alabama coal strike in 1921, while the commander was on guard duty at Townley, Ala.

NOTAS LOCALES
En Monasterio de Banco Fue Plagiado y Robado
Ayer tarde, a última hora, una activa pareja de banditos jóvenes secuestró a Herbert Eby, mensajero del Merchants' National Bank, que viajaba en un tranvía, y lo robó. Parece que el robo había sido planeado de antemano; pero no produjo a los banditos sino una utilidad líquida de $150, cantidad de que despojaron al joven mensajero. Este había salido de la agencia que tiene el citado banco en la esquina de la Séptima y Hoover, como a las 5 p.m., llevando un grueso costal de lona que contenía cheques cancelados. Se examinaba al banco de liquidación, donde generalmente transporta grandes sumas de dinero. Los banditos sabían probablemente esto, y tenían proyectado su atraco. Rubió el mensajero a un tranvía, cerca de la agencia del banco, siguiéndole los dos ladrones, quienes, en el vagón, y ametrallando a su víctima con sendas pistolas automáticas, llevaron a cabo el proyectado golpe.

The Inside Story of the Inside Plunge

Members:-

- BIMINI BATHS
- VENICE PLUNGE
- OCEAN PARK BATH HOUSE
- LONG BEACH BATH HOUSE
- REDONDO BEACH BATH HOUSE

Do you know that there is an association called the Southern California Plunge Bathing Association? The members of this Association are the owners of Indoor Plunges in which thousands enjoy the bracing delights and the invigorating benefits of the indoor pool or plunge.

Do you know that these men are pledged to make of these Bathing Establishments places where everyone—men and women, old and young, girls and boys—can safely enjoy the greatest of all athletic pastimes?

It will no doubt interest you, for instance, to be told that the water in these Plunges is laundered several times each day and is as hygienic, clean and sanitary to put next to your skin as is laundered clothing.

This is not hearsay or guess work. It is determined by actual scientific tests made frequently. It will be demonstrated and proved to you or anyone interested at any time you choose.

The reasons for this cleanliness of water are very simple ones. In fact they are the result of the action taken by the members of the Southern California Plunge Bathing Association themselves in assisting the State Board of Health to formulate well defined, common sense, hygienic rules for the conduct of these places.

In every one of these Plunges the water is changed and re-changed, being fed by a constantly flowing stream of clear, sanitary, heated water.

Other precautions of a technical nature are taken to insure sterilization and to eliminate any possibility of contamination.

There are also rigidly enforced regulations which have to do with the personal cleanliness of all who enter the pool, and in addition to this certain standards of deportment and conduct are insisted upon.

These regulations, which insure sanitation and protection, make a happy, healthful playground for every member of the family.

As a guaranty to you that these regulations are in force and that the Indoor Plunge you patronize has been made absolutely safe, the Southern California Plunge Bathing Association has adopted an emblem, which only the members of this Association are permitted to display.

Look for this Emblem which stands for the principles upon which the Indoor Plunges are operated—Safety, Health, Sanitation.

This emblem displayed at the Indoor Plunge is your safeguard. You will find it displayed in a conspicuous place in Plunges that are members of this Association—formed for the protection of you and your family.

AMERICAN TAKES LEAD FOR WORLD GOLF TITLE

on Northern Course Hampers Players; Play Final 36-Hole Match Here Tomorrow

BY CHARLES WEST

San Francisco, Jan. 25.

Gene Sarazen, the American, today gave him a three-up lead over Arthur Havers, the Britisher, in the final 36-hole match for the world golf title.

The match was played on the Hillcrest course at the Lake Merced Country Club, which is the home of the American professional.

Since 1896 the match has been played on the Hillcrest course, which is the home of the American professional.

How the American Golf Champ Beat the Britisher

The map below is an accurate reproduction of the course of the Lake Merced Golf and Country Club course near San Francisco on which Gene Sarazen and Arthur Havers battled yesterday for 36 holes, the first half of their world championship match of 72 holes. The final 36 holes will be played on the Hillcrest course here tomorrow. The map shows each individual stroke made during the 36 holes of match play yesterday, faithfully reproduced on accurate telegraphic information from San Francisco. Sarazen's ball is the white ball and Havers's is solid black. The morning round is shown by a dotted line and the afternoon round by a straight line. Follow them around the course and see how the accurate shooting of the American professional champion piled up a lead on the erratic play of the British open title-holder.

Frankie Garcia Wins Decision Over Gorman

Frankie Garcia, speedy local featherweight, won the decision over Joe Gorman, Portland fighter, in the main event of last night's bouts at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium. The Los Angeles boxer was shaded in only one round, the first, which went to Gorman.

Garcia came back strong in the second and rocked his opponent repeatedly with rights and lefts to the face and body. In the third he opened up a cut over Gorman's right eye, the blood flowing freely. The Portland man made a game rally in the final session, but Garcia stood him off and won the decision.

Only Mel Stevenson's gameness kept him from being knocked out in the semi-final, which went to Charlie Sullivan by a wide margin. Sullivan won the first round easily, and then knocked his man down for the count of nine in the second. In the third Sullivan showed up a bit, but finished strong in the final round, battering Stevenson all over the ring.

Teddy Seidman won over Joe Medina, scoring a clean knockdown in the semi-final, which was far too clever for the willing Seidman who was unable to reach his opponent for any effective blows.

Billy Ryan got an easy decision over Subby Durham, smacking his rival to the canvas in the opening round. In the last three rounds he had things all his own way.

Harry Whitman and Young Ketchel fought a slashing draw, the latter taking the toll of nine in the second. Frankie Burns beat Terry Griffin on a foul, Griffin submitting for Earl Lane. The lower was leading all the way until the fourth when he hit his man low.

Young Fredericks handed Young Donahue a neat lacing in the opener.

Arrangements have been made for the Olympic team to leave June 4 or June 5.

An invitation for the Olympic team to visit Spain was received and probably will be accepted by some of the members.

The dates for the Davis Cup match were set for September 4, 5 and 6.

CULVER TRACK REOPENS TODAY

Dick Ferris Unlocks Gates on Horse-Racing Plant

Eighty-seven Days' Sport is Carded by Promoter

Santa Monica Handicap Will Feature Program

BY ED O'MALLEY

The thoroughbred cry in Los Angeles today is "we're going out to see the ponies perform."

The Culver City race track's gates will be thrown open this afternoon for a resumption of the originally advertised 100 days' meeting.

Manager Dick Ferris is still convinced that a betless meeting can be made a success in Southern California and with that end in view will make every effort within his power to continue the pastime for the remaining eighty-seven days.

The course is in excellent shape and good times should be had up in almost all the dashes. During the recess of the sport the many horses that are stabled at the track have been kept in racing condition by daily workouts, consequently some rare pony entertainment may reasonably be looked forward to.

Secretary Finn has decided to put on a feature event every day, a move that should bring together the best stock at the trackway. The Santa Monica Handicap, which is the "big doings" this afternoon, is at five and a half furlongs. Speedy ones like Carist, Earline and Aravan are listed among the starters, and a fast spin is sure to crop up, especially in the closing strides. In two other races, the distances will be a mile, thus giving the fans a chance to see the fields started in front of the grand stand.

Between races Miss Edith Sterling, one of America's best rodeo riders, will dish up an entertainment for the crowd in the way of a race between Vera McGinnis, formerly with the Barnum & Bailey Circus, and Bonnie Grey, who won rodeo honors at the last Madison Square Garden contests. Both girls are star riders. In addition to this, Miss Sterling will present Hank Harrell, Frank Gucky, Ed Wright and Gordon Jones in a series of fancy riding, trick roping and Roman riding. The quartet is regarded as the best in America and never fails to put up a thrilling performance.

The sports begin at 2 o'clock and will end at 4:30 o'clock. Arthur McKnight will be back in the starter's box. In the judicial stand will be Presiding Judge E. C. Smith and Secretary Bill Finn. The reduced price of admission should bring out a banner crowd.

BASEBALL TILTS FOR TOMORROW

Many Games Scheduled in Greater Southern California Association

Many feature games are on tap for tomorrow in the Greater Southern California Baseball Association.

Floyd Carleton will lead his movie crowd to Wilmington tomorrow. Both of these clubs have enjoyed a long winning streak and some one is going to be stopped tomorrow. Ray Keating or Moore Trautwein, will be on the hill for Hollywood. Neales behind the plate. Pete Melle will use Cecil Cruz or Al Miller, Bossell receiving, in an effort to stop the invaders.

Hollywood K. C. which have been stepping along at a fast clip will run into some real opposition Sunday when they meet Jack O'Toole's Long Beach K. C. at Loyola College.

HOLLYWOOD IN EASY WIN

Trample L. A. High, 29 to 7; Manual Trims Jefferson, 21 to 11; Lincoln Beats Poly, 19 to 14

Completely bewildering their opponents with a speedy short-passing game the Hollywood High team yesterday afternoon and Jack Ketchum and Capt. Willis shot enough baskets to beat Los Angeles High, 29 to 7. The Pioneers were outclassed from start to finish and never had a look-in after the first two or three minutes. The Romans didn't even get a field goal, and that's a pretty bad beating.

Manual Arts, making their 1924 increased their lead in the final bow, did what a lot of people expected when they slugged Jefferson for a 21-to-11 defeat at Jefferson. Coach Mott Blair's lads were very much in the race for the championship and right now are about the only team capable of denting the Pioneers.

Lincoln sneaked over a 19-to-14 win at the expense of Coach Vye Brennan's Polytechnic hoopers, the game being played at Lincoln. The Mechanics had a 10-to-4 lead at the end of the half, but couldn't keep up with the speed of the Redpillers in the second session.

Hollywood showed a splendid passing game and the defensive work of Perry and Lehnars was above the average. Willis and Ketchum knew every nook of the dinky Pioneers' gym and made good use of their knowledge. None of Bruce Kirkpatrick's men could hit the basket. The Pioneers were away off form, but could not have trimmed the movie shooters if they had been in perfect shape. The score at half-time was 11 to 4 and the winners

Phoenix-Like Shelby Rises From Crashes

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Shelby, the little Montana boom town where the Dempsey-Gibbons heavyweight championship fight last July 4 left a train of financial disaster, has risen again from obscurity to offer $500,000 for the 1924 version of the Dempsey-Gibbons feud.

Tex Rickard, who plans to stage the return title fight here during the first week in June, announced today he had received such an offer on behalf of the Shelby Chamber of Commerce for a bout there next July 4. The promoter hastened to add, however, that he did not view seriously the offer, which is $200,000 in excess of the guarantee made Dempsey a year ago and which the Montana men failed to meet after a financial struggle that culminated in Shelby's ring battle it involved.

Emerson Norton, former University of Kansas all-around athlete star is now studying at the Georgetown University. He will be eligible for athletic competition next year and should be a fine successor to Rex LeGendre, who starred at the Washington (D. C.) institution.

Lincoln came back strong in the second half of their game with Poly and as a result the Mechanics were left with the short end of the score. Westcott and Gulick got fifteen points between them.

The only joy the L. A. High rooters got out of their day at Hollywood was a thrilling 13-to-12 victory over the movie lightweight. A half-minute basket by Jileson, a throw by Royer which knocked the coach and then a free loss by Livermore gave the Romans the game. The Manual midlets won their tilt, 14 to 11, and the Lincoln bubbleweights smacked Poly for a 19-to-12 defeat. Suffer and

MIDWICK POLOISTS DEFEATED

San Mateo Cardinals Trim Local Four, 13 to 9, at Del Monte

DEL MONTE, Jan. 25.—First game of the polo season for the Midwick Country Club's polo team, played here this afternoon with the San Mateo Cardinals, resulted in a 13-to-9 goal defeat for the Los Angeles poloists. A handicap of three goals given Midwick by the Cardinals makes the official score Cardinals 13 goals; Midwick 9. An eleventh-hour switch in the Pacific Coast polo schedule pitted Midwick against the Cardinals, the tireless Burke scored four of the six goals earned by his team. Bozke was a shining star in the game and emerged from it with nine goals to his credit. Hugh Drury, who watched the game from the sidelines, will captain the Del Monte team which plays Midwick Sunday.

Arrangements have been made for the Olympic team to leave June 4 or June 5.

An invitation for the Olympic team to visit Spain was received and probably will be accepted by some of the members.

The dates for the Davis Cup match were set for September 4, 5 and 6.

Cornell, the United States Navy and Army are enlarging the seating capacity of their athletic fields in preparation for this fall's football crowds.

The Tanforan race track, adjacent to San Francisco, may be the scene of a light-harness meet in September, next.

Bill Tilden and Tennis Officials Declare a Truce

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The controversy between William T. Tilden, 11 national champion and the tournament committee of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, which for a time threatened to deprive the United States of its Davis Cup, was amicably settled at a meeting Wednesday night at which members of the committee and of all the recent teams were present. It was decided to instruct Henry W. Slocum, national delegate at the meeting in March of the International Lawn Tennis Federation, to vote against the proposal that a period of more than one year might be permitted to elapse between challenges for the Davis Cup.

Arrangements have been made for the Olympic team to leave June 4 or June 5.

The big noise of tonight's Southern California Intercollegiate Conference basketball games centers around the battle between the Whittier College and Redlands University teams. The Redlands team, which is the home court of the latter team. With the Poets undefeated, and Redlands one of the three strongest quintets in the league, there is bound to be something interesting going on in the Redlands gymnasium.

Redlands can very easily spoil things for the Quakers, who have found hopes of finishing in first place this year. The Poets are going on the assumption that they will defeat the local University of California five when the two teams clash at Whittier. However, should Redlands step in this evening and trim the Whittier bunch, nothing short of a miracle could keep the Quakers from winning the championship, as Coach Caddy Works and company will undoubtedly beat the Quakers in the return game at the Vermont-avenue gym. Therefore it is very evident that Coach Works' men must win tonight to remain in the running.

On past performances the Poets will be slight favorites. They have shown a powerful defense and enough scoring ability to average 27 points a game, this amounting to enough to beat the Quakers on their home floor this year, as Redlands is shy of good goal shooting. Coach Caddy Works, who is the defender in the scoring line, while Ray Johns and Reese play a great defensive game.

Coach Cecil Chapman will rely on the basket catching ability of Jeffers to garner points, while Thompson and Knights will stack up about evenly with the Poet pair in the way of defensive work. Hosgood, running guard, who shifts to center, will undoubtedly account for a good share of the Bulldogs' scores. What slight edge the Quakers have is practically offset by the Redlands wing, as Redlands has a great deal of practically a team-up.

The local U.C. team is expected to play little trouble and to secure a few substitutes after his regular season, as the Bruins' mentor will be saving his charges for the game with Whittier next week.

DE PALMA STOCK GOES UP

Italian Becomes Odds-on Favorite After Workout for Ascol Motor Races Sunday

Five thousand members of the local Italian colony have banded into a "Bravo De Palma" club and will attend New Ascol Speedway tomorrow afternoon to offer moral support and cheer to their speed idol, Ralph De Palma, when the famed Italian enters into the gasoline-jousting match with Fred Horey, who defeated him last Sunday, and a large gathering of other dare-devils who would give everything but a right arm to gain the decision over the noted De Palma.

De Palma's stock ascended rapidly yesterday afternoon when he took to the heavily oiled and perfectly dusted track for practice with his Miller racer. De Palma attained far greater speed than on Sunday, and was faster on several laps than Fred Horey had negotiated the course earlier in the afternoon. The other drivers left the track when De Palma arrived and all snapped each of his laps with stop watches.

The Italian became an odds-on favorite after his workout. About thirty of the forty-two drivers entered for tomorrow's speed trial were out during the practice period yesterday. Arthur Davidson, Eddie Meyer, Fred Lyons, Fred Lettkalder, Fred Horey and Jimmy

Set Dates for Annual Amateur Golf Tourney

The annual California amateur golf tournament will be held over the Del Monte courses the week of September 7 to 13, according to an announcement given out yesterday by W. M. Armstrong, director of a meeting of the directors of the California Golf Association. This announcement will mean that the golfers will be playing on the Del Monte courses, which the State as it makes it possible for California players to compete in the Del Monte tournament first and then have full week in which to get back East for the national matches which begin on the 20th and continue for eight days.

All of the matches will be played over both courses at Del Monte with the exception of the championship flight, which will be staged at Pebble Beach. The semi-final and final championship flights will be over thirty-six holes, other matches being eighteen.

COOMBE AND WALTON SIGN WITH ANGELS

REDLANDS, Jan. 25.—Leo Coombe, catcher, and "Lefty" Walton, southpaw pitcher, of Redlands, who have signed contracts with the Los Angeles Angels of the Coast League, expect to leave Redlands soon to begin training. Coombe has been with the Southern California Home Telephone Company for several years and Walton has been with the Southern California Edison Company.

Chapter VIII
HOW I MADE $500,000

(Copyright, 1923, in United States and Great Britain, Cuba, Japan and South America, by North American Newspaper Alliance. All rights reserved.)

BY TEX RICKARD

One of the first men to buy a drink in our bar and gambling-house at Noma on that famous Fourth of July opening was an old fellow with long whiskers.

"Fill 'em up, boy," he ordered, waving his arm to include everybody in the house.

All drinks were 50 cents a throw and they could take what they liked, whisky, gin, brandy or wine. The price didn't bother anybody.

In those days, the old man slapped his pole—a small bag of gold dust—on the bar and untied the string.

"Weight 'er up," he directed me, "and let's have another one."

The two rounds came to about $50. Come to think of it, the prices don't look so high, at that, when I think of those Klondike days.

I weighed the gold—he had close to five pounds—and it came to something like $1200. We kept a pair of fine scales back of the bar, and every time we had a new subdivision figured out so exactly that we could make change in gold dust down to 50 cents exactly.

"Put the rest of it away for me, boy," the old miner ordered. "I'll get it when I come back."

But that old man never came back. He went into the mountains or up some creek. We never heard of him again. Very few prospectors ever left a name or an address. We usually knew them by sight, and that was enough.

The proprietor of the saloon and gambling-house, you see, was a camp banker. Often I have had as much as $100,000 stowed away in the safe, all in bags of gold, without knowing the owners except by sight. They trusted me implicitly. My trust in them was just as good.

$500,000 IN FOUR YEARS

That first night, as I have said, wound up with our sales showing $958 in gold dust. Our biggest expectations had never gone that high. The receipts fell off a little the next two days. That year, though, I cleared for myself $100,000. My profits for four years out of the Noma establishment were close to $500,000. That wasn't on paper, either. It was all in virgin gold. And I had started on $25!

To show you how strong the play was the first week or two, my original partner sold out at the end of ten days for $10,000. Why, talk about people being amazed at the offer of $100,000 for a prize fight in New York City or residence—that much could have been guaranteed in any year for a fight up in Alaska right in our saloon and gambling-house at Noma on that famous Fourth of July opening was an old fellow with long whiskers.

"Fill 'em up, boy," he ordered, waving his arm to include everybody in the house.

GIBBONS STARTS WORK IN APRIL

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH)
Eddie Kane, manager of Tom Gibbons, who is matched to meet Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight title for Rex Rickard some time in June, today announced that Tom will start his training campaign early in April.

Most of the preliminary work will be done in St. Paul, and a camp will not be established in the East until three weeks before the contest. Manager Kane corroborated statements from the East that he has signed with Tex Rickard and he understands Jack Kearns has done the same for Dempsey. Clenching of the match, however, was kept rather quiet in the East owing to the untimely death of Frankie Jerome, which for a time threatened to kill the sport in the Empire state.

A starter, new at new Ascol, but a veteran in the service, was in charge of the workouts. He was none other than George Adair, who by virtue of being in the undertaking business can apply to be the man who starts and finishes them.

Adair will serve at all Ascol meets. Norman Manning will have charge of the drivers at the Ascol course, until he turns them over to Adair. Frank A. Garbutt has been appointed referee-in-chief, while business prevented his being present the job of boxing the drivers and other officials will be in the capable hands of associate referee, Charles Keppel.

Widener Will Judge Dogs at Specialty Show

P. A. B. Widener of Elkins Park, Pennsylvania, world famous breeder of dogs, left yesterday for Los Angeles to be the judge of the Third Annual Shepherd Dog show to be held in Hollywood February 2. The announcement of Widener's departure brought a great flock of last-minute entries. Widener is considered America's foremost dog show judge and is owner of the Shepherd Dog Journal, international champion and Grand Champion of America for 1923. He is due to arrive here the early part of next week.

After much discussion regarding the site for the show, the original location of Hollywood Boulevard and Orange Drive in Hollywood has been selected. The show committee to assist Widener during the one-day exposition was announced last night by Mrs. E. J. Elliott Dexter, president of the Shepherd Dog Club of the West. The committee includes: F. F. Drew, chairman; Mrs. Grutchen Barnes, Mrs. Lulu Clark, L. W. Booth, R. B. Ketchum, Kyle Onatott, E. H. Scheele.

The feature of this evening in the A.A.U. basketball tournament will be between the Larry Semons A.C. five and the Goodyear Friars, the game to be played on the latter's court. Last season, and the year before, the Semons won the A.A.U. title and the Comedians are out to repeat this season.

SHATTERS WORLD RECORD

Osborne Hangs Up New Mark in Running High Jump; Illinois A.C. Wins Indoor Meet

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Featured by the world's record smashing performance of Harold Osborne of the I.A.C. in the running high jump and trying of the world's mark in the 70-yard dash by C. Coaffee of the same club, athletes representing the Tricolor club won their seventh annual indoor handicap track and field games in the Broadway Armory last night.

I. A. C. athletes scored points in each of the fifteen open events and garnered 93 1-2 points. The University of Chicago was second with 27 markers and the Swedish-American A. A. third with 7 points. Unmatched performers chalked up 25 1-2 points.

Osborne, who has been threatening the world's outdoor record of 6 ft. 7 1-2 in. for the last year, attained one of his ambitions when he shattered the world's indoor mark. He cleared the bar at 6 ft. 6 in. Owing to the slight sag of the bar, the leap was measured with a steel tape and he was credited with 6 ft. 5 3-4 in.

The former world's mark was held by Landon and Brown of the New York A. C., who cleared the bar at 6 ft. 5 1-4 in. in the Madison games held in New York City last winter.

Coaffee tied the world's 70-yard record in the final heat of the 70-yard dash, stepping the distance in 7 1-5 which equaled the mark held jointly by many of America's top sprinters.

In the women's events, Helen Fley was the individual performer and according to Tom Eck, coach of the long distance runners at the University of Chicago, established the world's record in the 70-yard dash and 70-yard low hurdles. Her time for the sprint was 2 1-2 and for the hurdles 15 1-2. Eck also claims the mark of 4 ft. 7 3-4 in. made by Fley Moorehead is also a world's indoor record.

Established in the book for these events and officials of the meet simply take Eck's word for it.

NO-DRAW RULE IS ADOPTED FOR MATCH

One of the binding conditions, and something different of the wrestling tussle between Heine Engel and Walter Miller at the Los Angeles Athletic Club Thursday night is that there shall be no draw.

In case neither takes two marks in the time-limit and result in draws. Sometimes there has been suspicion that one or the other contestants "laid down the job" by trying for nothing but a draw positively eliminated no question of that nor can arise this time. The grapplers will be out to win, every bit of action will count, and it is foregone conclusion that the winner will not begin to end.

OBSERVATIONS

by the
INNOCENT BYSTANDER
W.M.H.

The long awaited movement to legalize ten-round boxing to California apparently is about to be sprung and it will be interesting to see just how the voters of the State respond to the plan. Boxing was dropped from the State law about ten years ago after years of prosperity here, chiefly under Tom McCarey, and in the north at Colma and other spots. Up to that time the majority of the world's championship bouts had been held in California because of the interest in the game out here and the law which allowed almost any duration.

Under the new proposed law boxing will be controlled in the State by a boxing commission similar to that in New York. Promoters and boxers alike will be licensed, and the state proportion of the gate receipts will go to the veterans' hospitals at San Francisco and in the north. The new law would permit of championship fights being staged in this State, providing champions were willing to risk the crowns over that short a distance.

Speaking of champions, McTigue apparently is about to lose his world's light-heavyweight championship and get well paid for same. The Irishman, who captured his title from Battling Siki, the singular Senegalese, is negotiating for a large sum of cash money for a fight with Young Stribling and George Carpentier during the spring. General suspicion seems to be that Mike is unable to be backed by either of them, while Gene Tunney, American light-heavyweight champ, is regarded as a dead certainty to crown him.

And incidentally, what about Harry Greb and Tommy Gibbons while all this excitement is on regarding the light-heavyweight crown? If Tommy Gibbons can't lick McTigue and a couple of others like him in the same afternoon, it will be a surprise to all concerned, and Greb has a decision over Gibbons to his credit. But then, for publicity purposes preceding the Gibbons-Dempsey bout, Gibbons was regarded as a great big heavyweight, and it would not be proper to match him with the light heavies.

Industrials Act Satisfactorily in Past Week

A. A. Housman &amp; Co.'s weekly summary of the stock market says:

"Students of the averages are well satisfied by the action of industrial stocks this week for they succeeded in going through previous resistance points on volume and the volume appeared to consolidate gains in a convincing manner. It is admitted that public interest in stocks like United Fruit, General Electric, National Leather and others is small and therefore their advances were not a reflection of increased outside buying demand, but it is claimed that they were a reflection of the fact that interest in stocks is still on the constructive side."

"Another feature which impressed market observers was the fact that after the market apparently had gone stale and after a majority of so-called professional traders had tried out the position of stocks by selling short and after the market looked to be simply at a standstill, trading proposition, activity was resumed on the uptick and this in the face of unsettling news from Washington regarding the naval reserve leases. Admittedly, this kind of news has no business to affect the whole market, but nevertheless, it has been in the market had been in susceptible condition, traders might easily have succeeded in breaking prices generally. As a matter of fact, it appeared as if they did try, but failed."

"In face of the general firmness, it is impossible to escape the irregular and soft tones of the motor stocks. They do not rally and many claim that when they rally it is only from short covering and not from reappearance of confident long buying. The fact that the motor industry will suffer a serious setback this year is a matter of opinion only at this early time, but all street appears to be thoroughly engaged with the idea and professional traders are consequently quite willing to sell the motor stocks when suitable occasion presents itself."

"If at their meeting on the 25th inst. the steel directors do not declare an extra dividend at least as large as the one declared three months ago, there will be universal disappointment. Some prediction is made that the steel industry will show a three-quarter or even one-half of 1 per cent instead of one-fourth. Steel stocks with the exception of the most prominent market makers and the feeling toward both groups is decidedly bullish."

"Incidentally, this sentiment is the kind which means to convey the idea that in buying the steel and oil now, ultimate profits will be entirely compensatory regardless of temporary irregularities."

Las Moradas Apartments

"Your Apartment Your Own"
An Apartment Built For a Home

Las Moradas Apartments was planned for something other than an ordinary apartment building. That is why so much emphasis is put upon the size of the individual apartments and each room in each apartment.

For Las Moradas is composed of distinct, individual homes, and even more than that, individual homes from which all the drudgery and care of details have been removed through providing daily hotel service.

You have only to visit the exhibit at 112 North Larchmont Boulevard to see for yourself the difference between Las Moradas and the ordinary conception of an Apartment.

And More—By Owning You Save Money

You save $84.75 every month besides being free from the cares of running a separate home.

These figures are based on the rental price of a similar apartment—$250—and the total per month of the $13,000 Apartment in Las Moradas, which may be purchased for $3000 down, $3000 in six months and the balance in eighteen years.

Interest on investment interest and payments on deferred payment, taxes, insurance, light, heat, daily hotel service total $155.25—the difference you save.

thing over or them and the duty they owe the proud names they bear compels them to look a little sharp. But it is surprising that women of a land of equal suffrage cannot in such important business transactions, take equal precautions. Shrewd as they are at suspecting American men of fortune-hunting, one look at armorial bearings seems to wipe their wits.

Since the successful invasion of America by Boni de Castellane Europe has suffered many severe blows, but gamely continues to put up its dukes.

The American government, however, has been determined to keep on trying them till they find one who is satisfactory.

American husbands are reputed to be the most indulgent on earth and American women are reported to fearly love being spoiled. But that must be a mistake. For if

DEL VALLE IN FOR FOUR YEARS MORE

Reappointment as Public Service Commissioner Confirmed by Council

R. F. Del Valle, for the past sixteen years a member of the Board of Public Service Commissioners, was yesterday reappointed to the commission for a four-year term by Mayor Cress.

The City Council, after a session of several hours, confirmed the reappointment of Mr. Del Valle to the Board of Public Service Commissioners.

Mr. Del Valle, who is now serving as president of the board, has been a member of the board since 1908.

He was born in December, 1855, in the Del Valle home situated opposite the old Mission Church at Plaza.

At that time the population of Los Angeles was about 4,000. The center of all activity was the Plaza and the entire city was within a few blocks in any direction beyond this center.

Mr. Del Valle is a member of an old California family, and has been active for more than forty years in national, State and local affairs.

FIGHT OVER CITY LEASE CONTINUED

Protest Seeking to Block Hyerion Project Will be Heard on February 8

The suit of the Title Guarantees and Trust Company against the city of Los Angeles, in which it is sought to restrain the municipal officials from leasing beach frontage at Hyerion to Titus Alexander, negro politician, for a nominal sum for fifteen years, was yesterday continued until February 8, by stipulation in Judge Ira F. Thompson's court. The order to show cause, asked by the plaintiff, is still in effect.

City officials were considering leasing the land, which is at the point where the new outfall sewer is being laid, to Alexander, who is widely known as a "car" on Central avenue, for the fifteen-year period at total of $2500. It is understood that the plaintiff has affidavits, which will be filed, in which prominent realty men of the Redondo-Hermosa district appraised the value of the lease at from $140,000 to $165,000.

The suit was filed, it is understood, at the instigation of Los Angeles taxpayers, who considered the lease as being given at too low a figure.

Church Official Speaks at Rotary Meeting

Dr. Theodore Kemp, associate secretary of the Commission on International Justice and Good Will of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, speaking before the Rotary Club at the Biltmore Hotel yesterday, denounced "those publishers who disseminate the name of journalism by printing editorial calculated to plant the seeds of hatred for England, France, Japan and other nations in the hearts of Americans."

"I have attended Rotary Club meetings in England and France many times and my eyes have been dimmed with tears at the sight of Old Glory prominently displayed among the flags of other lands," said the speaker. "And something within my heart told me that the time of international brotherhood was near at hand, and that spirit that speaks peace and good will among men is with us still."

ISOLATION IMPOSSIBLE

"Modern inventions, literature and commerce already have made all nations of the world neighbors, and the next step is international brotherhood," said Dr. Kemp. "Isolation is impossible. I know that there are those who advocate keeping out of all affairs of Europe until, as they say, 'the house of Europe is clean.' Well, the house of Europe has been out of order for 100 years. Shall we not offer the Old World our kindly assistance in helping those nations to clean house? If we do, by the time the house is cleaned we will not be known as strangers but as friends and members of the household."

"We have sown hatred, suspicion and prejudice long enough," said the speaker. "It is time to plow up the old weeds and to plant the seeds of the blossoms of love and fellowship and good will. It is said that a dead leaf, falling to earth, will start vibrations that will reach to the farthest stars. How much stronger are the vibrations of thoughts and deeds of kindness and good will to our fellow-men."

PRaises ROTARY SPIRIT

"Do not be content with saying 'the truth is mighty and shall prevail,'" pleaded the speaker. "Abstract truth is helpless. Truth is effective only as it is incarnated in personalities and organizations. It is mighty only when it is given force to go on errands of mercy, a tongue to speak words of blessing and hands to help the needy of the world."

CONSTABLE CLEARED IN RAID DEATH

Officer is Acquitted by Jury of Charge of Manslaughter

A jury in Judge Craig's court late yesterday acquitted Charles Y. Adams, deputy county constable, of a charge of manslaughter growing out of the fatal shooting June 1, 1933, of Nicola Pietrantonio during a raid near Burbank.

Adams, who was indicted by the county grand jury following Pietrantonio's death, testified in his own behalf yesterday and stated he had acted in self-defense and for the protection of his fellow-officers.

"The witness was one of a party of officers, who, armed with a search warrant, were dispatched to raid an alleged bootlegging liquor dispensary. The state's theory was that the men had invaded a place other than the one called for in the warrant and that Pietrantonio was only and killed by Adams during the hunt for liquor."

The defense offered testimony to show the officers had gone to an address indicated on a search warrant by a blue pencil mark and that Pietrantonio was in reality the man under surveillance.

"The twelfth region of the Boy Scouts, which includes California, is better organized than any other section in the United States," said Dr. George J. Fisher, deputy chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America, at the Scouts' regional conference at the Biltmore yesterday.

An present there are 366,000 boys all over America who are in the Scout movement, and it was resolved at the meeting to increase this by 10,000 during the year and to provide for more extensive training of all of Scout Masters. When the annual Scout Masters conference takes place at Copenhagen this year America is to be represented by forty-eight Boy Scouts, four of whom will be local boys. Discussion is also under way as to the advisability of sending the Los Angeles Boy Scout Band with them. Special mention was made of the Boy Scout week, starting on February 3, when several hundred thousand scouts will celebrate throughout the country and more than 1000 newspapers will devote their editorials to the movement.

This is Dr. Fisher's third visit to California in the interest of Scouting.

FOLLETTE
CASE OVER
TO MONDAY

Handwriting Expert for Accused, is on Stand at Adjournment

L. N. Inskeep, teacher of penmanship and handwriting expert, successfully qualified in the latter profession yesterday in the trial of Channing Follette, but failed to qualify as a photographer, and thus caused an adjournment of the case until Monday morning, when the man who made certain photostatic copies of the defendant's writing will appear in court.

The witness took the stand and testified that Follette did not write the words "George Allen or Ruth Allen" on a check for the famous $700 package. He produced a huge enlargement of the check and failed to explain the manner in which he arrived at this conclusion, but Special Prosecutor Clark objected, and proceeded to examine him upon the method of taking the picture. It was then decided to postpone the case until the photographer could testify and lay the foundation for the introduction of the writing. An unusual feature was the fact that the State had not produced any other photograph of the same thing, taken by the same man.

Handwriting Expert Milton Carlson, who had previously testified for the prosecution that Follette did write the words, was in the rear of the courtroom during the incident, eagerly listening to the declarations of his professional confederate and opponent.

Follette, who was formerly a justice of the peace, and who is on trial for asserted perjury before the grand jury, left the stand in the afternoon, following two days of rigid cross-examination by Mr. Clark. He protested that when he testified before the grand jury he was telling the truth, and the prosecutor's downpour of questions did not shake him from his contentions.

The defendant declared that his indictment was the result of an injustice shown him by former District Attorney and the attacks on his office. He declared that the District Attorney had complete control over the grand jury which indicted him and this control brought about the accusation, he testified that he had not told all on the subject to the grand jury because he feared he would not receive a fair trial from that body. His troubles, he said, began when he opposed the candidacy of Woolwine.

EX-ACTRESS

Mrs. Dorothy Harrison
Also Gets Cash in Lieu of Alimony

Mrs. Dorothy Madge Harrison, former English stage star, yesterday was awarded a divorce by Judge Burke from Gerald Alton Harrison, son of a wealthy dog biscuit manufacturer of London, who said on the witness stand that in his country his prison was that of being a gentleman. By a property settlement effected out of court and approved by Judge Burke, Harrison will pay $10,000 cash to his former wife in lieu of alimony.

Mrs. Harrison had originally filed suit for separate maintenance, but she instituted divorce proceedings on the ground of cruelty in relation to a cross-complaint her husband brought to her action for separate maintenance.

Mrs. Harrison charged her mate unjustly accused her of intimate relations with Douglas L. Baxter, a man the couple were said to have met on their way to this country from England, a witness called by the wife testified Harrison had left his wife alone without any way of amusing herself while he played tennis.

Charges in Harrison's cross-complaint that Mrs. Harrison and Baxter had been unchastely intimate were not borne out in the testimony, the court ruled, ordering Harrison not to interfere with Mrs. Harrison's life and to pay her $10,000 in lieu of alimony, on penalty of being "punished to the full extent of the law."

They were married in London, January, 1915, and separated July 1, 1933, according to Mrs. Harrison.

Last Week is Reopened

Mrs. Viola Whitman, an unusually stout woman, was granted a divorce yesterday by Judge Shaw from Arthur Whitman, who deserted her after becoming tired of living in her reflected fame.

She was refused a divorce last week, as she had no substantiation of her testimony, and the case was taken off the calendar. Yesterday George Haggins, who knew them both at the time of the asserted desertion, came to Los Angeles and Judge Shaw agreed to hear the case again.

Whitman was accused of deserting her in an Oregon town, May 30, 1933. Here are some of the high points of the witness' testimony:

"He said: 'If I wanted to go to housekeeping I'd have stayed with her in Michigan.'"

"I've got a job, so has she. What more does the woman want?"

"He packed his blanket roll and went down to the station and took the train. 'I'm gone for good,' he told me."

"Mrs. Whitman said she was going to be married as soon as the decree became final. She refused to give the name of the lucky man but was attended in court by a cavalier."

MASONS AS EDUCATORS

Senator Boynton, Senior Grand Warden, Lays Stress
on Work Being Done for Youths

The importance of the promotion of education by the members of the Masonic order was the principal point stressed in the address of former Senator Albert B. Boynton of San Francisco, delivered at the Masonic Club luncheon at the Alexandria yesterday.

Mr. Boynton, who is Grand Commander of the Order of Knights Templar, and Senior Grand Warden of the Grand Lodge, F. and A. M. of California, is on a tour of inspection of the lodges of Southern California, coming to Los Angeles from Imperial Valley.

He referred particularly to the movement inaugurated at the Triennial Convocation of the Knights Templar Grand Lodge in New Orleans in 1927 to provide funds to enable students to go to college.

"A fund of $112,000 contributed by California Masons has not been made available for this purpose," he said, "and some forty young men have already been given an opportunity to enter universities and colleges. California is one of the States taking the lead in this movement."

It is supplementary to the instruction a boy receives as a scout, and carries him safely over his most impressionable, hence most dangerous, period until he reaches manhood."

The Order of De Molay now has a membership of 400,000 in this and other countries, its activities having become international in scope. The order is a strong chapter of the organization in Los Angeles, under the direction of Charles Wright, and its popularity has increased to such an extent that a second chapter is to be organized here in the near future.

Promoter, Accused of Passing Bad Checks Says He is Innocent and Blames Overdraft

Following the arrest of William Graham, 43 years of age, in San Francisco several days ago and his return to Los Angeles in the custody of Officer E. T. Taylor, Hollywood police say they have completed their third "fake film company" case within twelve months.

Graham, charged with passing fictitious checks, is accused of promoting a motion-picture producing company which was to have operated under the name "Whispering Terrors." He is said to have distributed more than $2500 worth of worthless checks and drafts which were deposited with the Hollywood Police Bureau, returned marked "insufficient funds."

Before his arrest in San Francisco, Graham had been in Hollywood, where he had been arrested on a speeding taxi-cab, was thrown into a building and injured. Yesterday, at the Hollywood Police Station, he declared that he wasn't hurt "much."

Blames overdraft. Graham, according to Assistant Captain of Detectives McMahon, is a former actor, who had been a bank balance by mistake. Several weeks ago, Hollywood detectives were asked to investigate a check for $1000, which was cashed by a man who had, without capital, signed a director, scenario writer, production manager and star for a mythical film company. Because the young man

FRENO, Jan. 25.—Accusations that her wife was intimate with other men while he was serving in the World War are contained in a cross-complaint and answer filed by A. P. Harris, Fresno attorney, following the divorce suit started by his wife, Corinne Harris.

Harris accuses his wife of going long distances "through the desert" with one John Little, and of associating with a man known as "Scotty," who is alleged to be an Avakian, an associate of Mrs. Harris while he was away in Los Angeles on government business. In 1917, he alleged, she had married another man and stayed three years.

Harris denies his wife's allegations and the continuing war with other women, that he refused to take her to places of amusement and that he told her she was his worst enemy and that he hated her.

TULARE, Jan. 25.—The Tulare Board of Trade closed an intensive membership drive of two and one-half days, at which time the most successful undertaking of the kind in its career and from service pledge and membership fees will have a working fund of $16,078 for the coming year.

Charles T. Bayer, of the service department of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, donated his assistance to the city for two days. J. A. Sammon headed the Lions' team which won out over its nearest competitor, the rotary board, by forty-seven points. Other teams were the Rotary Women's Club and Board of Trade.

New members number 318, bringing the total to 676, who are hereafter the largest membership was 466. Funds available at the start of the campaign amounted to $13,775, making a gain of nearly $6000.

Officers elected were: Registrar, Rev. Lee A. Wood, Porterville; Secretary, Rev. F. H. Graves; Treasurer, William H. C. Macdonald; Finance, Rev. H. C. Macdonald; Steward, Rev. H. C. Macdonald; and Clergy delegates to the Provincial Synod to be held in San Jose in May are: Dean G. H. E. Macdonald, Fresno; Rev. H. C. Macdonald, Stockton; Mr. Wood, Porterville. Lay delegates are: Dr. F. W. R. Anderson, Merced; W. G. Urdire, Fresno; Emil Mass, Lindsay.

Members of the executive council are: Finance, Macdonald; Mr. Macdonald and Mr. Urdire; religious education, Mr. Wood, and Dr. Anderson; special services, Rev. H. C. Macdonald, Stockton; and S. A. Eckstrom, Stockton; publicity, Mr. Graves and George A. Osborn of Fresno.

SEEKS RE-ELECTION

LINDRAY, Jan. 24.—Charles W. Cleary of Lindray is the first legislative candidate to actually throw his hat into the ring. He has issued a statement to voters of Tulare county that he will stand for re-election. In making this declaration, Cleary emphasizes his record in the Legislature. "There has never been a time in the history of California when there was greater need than now for the presence in our Legislature of men and women who have the inclination and ability to think for themselves and the courage to act with integrity and sincerity in the interests of the people of the State."

TREASURER REPORTS

TULARE, Jan. 24.—A balance of $44,284.97 is in the city treasury at the present time, according to a report made at the regular meeting of the City Council by C. W. Cobb, City Auditor and clerk. This report is the first to be given under the provisions of the new city charter, which changes the fiscal year from July 1 to January 1. For that reason, the report covers only the last six months. During that period the balance of the city totaled $124,444.74.

TO TEST MENTALITY

DINUBA, Jan. 25.—Ada Herrold, 14-year-old daughter of J. H. Herrold of Dinuba, who last week told her father that she had been seduced by a man, is to be given a mental test by a physician at the local hospital. The father, who has been accused of being the perpetrator of a series of mysterious thefts which he had reported from time to time to the officers, will be given a mentality test at Visalia this morning by Cornelia W. Elbow, specialist at Fresno.

MEETING-PLACE CHOSEN

DINUBA, Jan. 24.—Oroqui was chosen as the next meeting-place for the quarterly gathering of the Epworth League of Tulare county, at a regular session of the organization held here yesterday. The meeting was held at the Pioneer Methodist Church. Principal speakers were Rev. Fletcher of Fresno and Miss Ida Oliver of LeGrand, district secretary.

Marshall Plan
Support Given
by Legislator

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 25.—Hearty endorsement of the Marshall plan and full support of the California State Irrigation Association were pledged by Senator E. A. Creighton of Kern county and D. L. Dishop, district manager of the San Joaquin Light and Power Corporation, following the address of the plan, registered in the city last night. Attorney W. C. Dorris also spoke, confirming County Commissioner Curran's assurance of the support of all Kern county Legislators.

Senator Creighton declared the movement to be important and vital to the State's future prosperity and gave assurance that there would be little difficulty in finding money to carry out the plan. He said that the 1935 Legislature will be found ready and willing to support the Marshall plan, there should be no doubt, the Senator declared.

"In spite of the jibes good naturedly poked at legislators, I am sure you will find the men and women composing that body are vitally interested in the success of this splendid movement, and ready to give the proper co-operation when called on to do so," Senator Creighton said. That Gov. Richardson would surely arise to the occasion was a further optimistic prophecy of the Senator.

Death Takes B. M. Atkinson, Owner of Poor Man's Mine in Randsburg Field

BAKERSFIELD, Jan. 25.—Benjamin M. Atkinson, a pioneer resident of Randsburg, died Wednesday in the mining settlement where he had lived since 1896. He had been ill over a long period of time. Mr. Atkinson was a native of Van Wert county, Ohio, where he was born September 18, 1840. He showed the pioneering spirit at a very early age, first launching out for himself as a farmer when only 14 years of age. Four years later he fell in with the westward-moving current of travel and came as far as Iowa. For the thirty years thereafter he never lived long in one place, but went from one western State to another, gradually edging toward California. In April, 1896, Atkinson and a partner came with two burros to Randsburg, rich by stories of the discovery of rich ore.

They worked first in the Stringer district. Later, they located and were made prosperous by the Poor Man's mine and the Sunshine Mine. Atkinson and a partner owned the Sunshine Mine. Other tales tell of how Mrs. Atkinson fell down the mine shaft and was killed and that the owner never again worked the property. "One of the sons of the deceased pioneer, William, is living in Randsburg. Others of the children in the family are living in Southern California. The remains are at the Flickinger mortuary, whence they will be sent to Bakersfield for burial. T. J. Oodick, founder of the town of Oodick, near Randsburg, and a lifelong friend of Atkinson, will be his companion on his last journey."

NEW LEADING LADY
NOTED ENGLISH ACTRESS TO OPEN AT FINE ARTS
By Grace Kingsley
A new leading lady is always a matter of interest to the theater-going public, and when that leading lady is a celebrated actress from abroad, why the fans are going to be unusually curious.
And when it is a case of the Fine Arts Theater, where congregated both high-brows and those who don't pretend they go to the theater for anything save to be amused, naturally interest runs unusually high.
Not to keep you in suspense any longer, a noted English star, Miss Margia LaRue, who has a London record for appearances in celebrated plays, has been signed to play the star role in "The Adding Machine," a New York success of last season written by Elmer L. Rice, who also wrote "On Trial," which was a success a few years ago, partly on account of the flashback method of presentation, which was a novelty borrowed from the films. The new play will open at Fine Arts Theater on Monday night, February 4.
Miss LaRue has played Ibsen, Shaw, and Galsworthy in London, but during the past three years has been appearing in repertory in oriental countries, principally in India.
The actress has an enviable war record also, she having served as ambulance driver in France, during which service she was decorated for bravery.
"Tiger, Tiger" continues to hold the boards at Fine Arts, with Ruby Miller in the leading role.
Two J. Warren Kerrigans
There are now two John Warren Kerrigans on this planet, where but one grew before. One is the well-known J. Warren Kerrigan, hero of "The Covered Wagon," and other photoplays. The other has just taken his first peep at this wicked world.
The latter named J. Warren is the infant son of Wallace Kerrigan, born to his wife at the Sisters' Hospital on Wednesday, last, and promptly named for his famous uncle. The baby is the third child born to the Wallace Kerrigans.
So now J. Warren, Sr., is wondering just how much real estate and other valuables he will be expected to pungle up for his namesake.
Cupid Note
If you have any old shoes or rice you don't need, and chance to be in the vicinity of the Ambassador Hotel tonight, these props dedicated to Hyman's drama may come in handy.
A wedding is to take place in the apartments of Richard Rowland, of First National. The happy couple are Helen Burr Hope and Richard Rowland, who may be by the way, be rather glad to shed part of a name, which does sound unfortunate, and Charles Brown, purchasing agent of United Studios.
Miss Hope is the daughter of Mrs. Leon D. Cordoba, of Argyle avenue, Hollywood.
Norma Talmadge's Next
It has been decided that Norma Talmadge's next vehicle will be a film version of "The House of Youth," on which Miss Talmadge will begin work as soon as she comes home, which is expected to be in course of a month. She is now in the East, and when last

BALLET NOVELTIES
Pavlova Presents Mystic Fantasy and Legend
By Edwin Schallert
Color and light, movement and grace became articulate, but with a language that is new in its poetry and shadings of beauty last night at Philharmonic Auditorium. Anna Pavlova, and her organization of dancers presented their third program before an audience that showed even greater brilliance than on the opening the evening before, and that filled every bit of available space in the theater.
Glowing and exquisite as her personal art remains, it was notable as an innovator in production that Pavlova appeared before her public. Two of the most distinctive and unusual presentations that Miss Pavlova has yet offered were included in the program. One was "The Russian Folk Lore," an adaptation of a legendary theme, and the other "Ajanta," described as "The Great Renunciation," an impression in ballet form of the Buddhism of the oriental monasteries. Both of these were interpreted to music of the more modern type, and in their dramatic variety of hue offered a striking contrast to the dances of more ethereal beauty that Pavlova has in the past brought before us.
The Old Russian Folk Lore ballet was the number closest to her personal art, as it is known, for it is full of vivid imaginative material that has been idealized and yet conveys the feeling that is unmistakably clear and fancifully real. The ballet is a rendering of the same story that is used for the opera "Le Cid d'Or," written by Rimsky-Korsakov, and as that work introduces dancers on the stage to interpret the music, so the old Russian Folk Lore, reserved the preceding and brings a singer to interpret the meaning of the dances—at least to an extent.
The story is quaint and whimsical after the Russian fashion, and instead of ending in a sort of disaster as does "Le Cid d'Or," the finale is happy.
The stage proceedings are exceedingly picturesque, and for the most part accompanied by music of very fine descriptive nature written by Nicholas Tcherepnine (there are about a dozen ways of spelling this name), and reaching heights of giddy and amusing fascination at times in the whirl of odd and grotesque figures in the dances. Truly a fairy-tale ballet this, and one that will come to mean much in popular appeal.
"Ajanta" is undoubtedly a work of tremendous imagination, and the costumes and settings offer all the rare allure of the most exotic orient. There is a chance, indeed, that as the organization develops the production it will cast over the onlooker an uplifting enchantment.
As yet the lines of its beauty are a little unevenly drawn. Neither was the summery in the ensemble as highly perfected as it usually is in the Pavlova productions. Nor did the premiere danseuse herself seem quite perfectly poised and secure at every moment as she practically always is.
Still for one who might look beneath the superficial uncertainties, there is much to intrigue in the beauty of the Alexandrian revel for it almost seems Alexandrian rather than oriental in the Hindu sense—that occupies the major stage picture.
The dramatic elements were spun of piquant and delicate motifs, varying from the caprice of a waits, to a vigorous Rhapsodie or Russian dance. Anna Pavlova and Laurent Novikoff shared applause in one of these numbers and Miss Pavlova appeared with an ensemble in another. Mr. Novikoff has gained greatly in the brilliance of his technique.
In her individual numbers, whether in ballet, or divertimento Pavlova seems to be constantly discussing a new masterpiece and appeal and a greater versatility.
ORGANIST PLEASES
George W. Andrews of Oberlin College gave an organ recital at the University of Southern California, Thursday evening, playing a fine program.
There was good attendance, a significant thing for an organ recital. Mr. Andrews gave an excellent and facile technique and there was a most commendable use of the expression pedals.
Possibly one of the best numbers of the evening was the "Pascaglia and Fugue," by Bach, which was well received. "Bourne" (Carpenter-Goulden) was a satisfying and pleasant number. Another delightful composition was the "Priore" (priory), by Wagner-Gibson. His own composition, "Sunset Shadow," received much applause. There were a number of other compositions performed and the program came to an effective climax with "Christus Resurrexit," by Ravello.
TOM MIRANDA TITLES
UNIVERSAL PICTURE
Tom Miranda, title editor under contract with Goldwyn at Culver City, has been loaned to Universal Film Corporation to write the titles for "The Signal Tower," a railroad drama directed by Clarence Brown.
Mr. Miranda is one of the best-known writers in the motion-picture industry. He is a graduate of the newspaper office, and his work in this direction that first attracted the attention of William A. Brady, with whom he was associated for over four years as assistant director-general of the World Film Corporation.
MISSION PLAY NIGHT
Tuesday will be "Mission Play Night" in the Ambassador Coconut Grove, at which the actor, T. MacLean, will be guest of honor. Among those who will be guests at Mr. MacLean's table are Mr. and Mrs. McConarty, author of the play; Mrs. Hancock Ranning, Mrs. Willoughby Rodman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jeffers, Mr. Edward Roberts, Mr. Howard Laughlin and Mr. Tippy Rodman.

The Los Angeles men who bore the first loss of the trip were C. B. River, R. L. Bland, engineers, and A. Ragdale. The accident occurred Sunday afternoon. Shortly after starting the trip, the boat was overturned and the two boats on board were overturned. The men were rescued and the boats were salvaged. The men were rescued and the boats were salvaged.

They were caught in a wind and rain storm. One of the boats containing Oliver, Bland and Ragsdale was swept against a tree trunk protruding above the water and passengers were injured. The second boat containing Bayle and Norma's Imbertson, was considerably damaged by the water. It was only by chance that Bayle happened to look back to see the three men fighting for their lives. It was more than an hour before Bayle and Imbertson were able to reach their companions.
